

"FRIENDS OF" OR "ADOPT-A-PARK" GROUP DIRECTORY

Park	Contact Person	Group Name	Address	Phone Number	Email	Webpage	Explanation of Group
Blakely Crescent Park	Bonnie Miller	Friends of Blakeley Crescent Park	6057 Ann Arbor Ave NE	206-524-8713	bmiller@serv.net	www.scn.org/fobcp
Frink Park	Darcy Thompson	Friends of Frink Park	3211 S Washington St., Seattle, WA 98144	206-325-4295	darcy@artcycled.com	www.frinkpark.org	Our mission is to promote the re-forestation and protection of trails, wetlands, and the general ecology of Frink Park and upper Leschi Park. By working with Seattle Parks, other organizations, and volunteers we hope to assure the long-term stewardship of Frink Park and Leschi Park.
Kiwanis Ravine	Carol T. Burton	Heron Habitat Helpers	PO Box 99815, Seattle, WA 98139-0815	206-284-6489	info@heronhelpers.org , volunteer@heronhelpers.org	www.heronhelpers.org	Heron Habitat Helpers' goal is to help Seattle enjoy, learn about, and protect its largest nesting colony of great blue herons in Kiwanis Ravine.
Interlaken/Louisa Boren Park	Kari A. Olson	Friends of Interlaken/Louisa Boren Park	1911 E Eaton Place, Seattle, WA 98112		kari.olson.fip.interlakenpark@comcast.net, garryana@msn.com (Rick)	refer to Seattle Parks&Recreation site	We are more effective (helping with restoration projects) when we have groups, please pair up with 6 or more volunteers.
Leschi Park/Lake Washington Blvd	John Barber	Friends of Leschi Park and Gateway	3421 E Superior St.	206-324-1548	barber-osa@comcast.net	www.frinkpark.org	Half of Leschi Park is wooded amounting to 5.2 acres of natural woodlands, and there are some undeveloped plant beds below in the traditional park. The Leschi Gateway refers to Lake Washington Boulevard from Lakeside Avenue to Yesler. Leschi Park's woods are included in the Frink Park concept plan.
Llandover Woods	Glenn Austin	Friends of Llandover Woods	14285 Sherwood Rd NW, Seattle, WA 98177	206-364-9252	gaustin@path.org
West Duwamish Greenbelt	Buphalo	The Nature Consortium	4408 Delridge Way SW, Suite 107, Seattle, WA 98106	206-923-0853	buphalo@naturec.org	www.naturec.org	The Nature Consortium's mission is to teach environmental lessons through the creative arts and hands-on conservation projects.
Orchard Street Ravine Natural Area	Carol Schultz	Friends of Orchard Street Ravine	7222 38th Ave SW, Seattle, WA 98126	206-932-6230	mark.schultz2@comcast.net	www.friendsoforchardstreetravine.org	The Friends of the Orchard Street Ravine (FOStR) believe the urban experience is enhanced by the existence of natural areas where native plants and animals are protected and maintained for the spiritual and educational enrichment of the community. This is particularly important in sensitive and watershed areas, such as this ravine, where steep slopes and existing vegetation demand special care and protections. To this end, FOStR was formed to provide a forum for planning and implementing actions to restore and enhance the natural habitat of the Orchard Ravine Natural Area.
Trolley Hill, MacLean Park, NE Queen Anne Greenbelt	Cathy Higgins	Friends of NE Queen Anne Parks			chiggins@pacar.com
SW Queen Anne Greenbelt	Joseph Losi	Friends of SW Queen Anne Greenbelt	1511 11th Ave W #4	206-281-9272	jlosi@conservationnw.org		In the beginning, ivy out phase of restoring this degraded greenbelt habitat.

Warren G. Magnuson Park	Bonnie Miller	Magnuson Environmental Stewardship Alliance	6057 Ann Arbor Ave NE	206-524-8713	bmiller@serv.net
Burke Gilman Playground	Bonnie Miller	Friends of Yesler Creek Headwaters Reforestation	6058 Ann Arbor Ave NE	206-524-8714	bmiller@serv.net	N/A
Saint Mark's Greenbelt	Deanna and Duane Theiss	Saint Mark's Ecology/Spirituality Community	10th Ave East	425-778-6801	dd.theiss@comcast.net, duanne.theiss@comcast.net
Golden Gardens	Rodney Pond	Forest Friends of Golden Gardens	6743 27 th Ave NW, Seattle WA 98117-5904	206-226-6637	fishmael@u.washington.edu		The Forest Friends of Golden Gardens (FFOGG) is being formed to support the restoration of all the forested areas in Golden Gardens through hands-on work, community outreach, and public advocacy.